

Response to Max Ernst's Une Semaine de Bonte

By Pamela

This reminds me of the Western Series that come on the weekends. Or maybe she light the candle with man and parakeet hand imagining what was really happen in this picture. This is a man with balloons.

Imagine who's flying across the sky? Up to the side of the wall. It she like a day dream? The picture just a camouflage picture all it. Would be exciting to be in color.
