

Prompt: Letter to a Former Teacher

July 21, 2009

To Sister Mary Ann:

I remember how hard you were on me, how you pushed me, only because you knew that I had potential. Sometimes I believed I was picked on. As I am older now, I know that this is not the case. I think a lot of my knowledge is due to your sternness and attention on me. I was a shy, scared little boy, but you saw something great in me and a person that could conquer the world. So I guess I say thank you for being a great teacher and I apologize for drawing that picture of you nailed to the cross.

To Mrs. Armstrong,

Thank you for teaching me all of the things in school that I've learned while I was in your classroom. I'm glad that I took your course. I've learned so much while being in high school. Thank you for being there for me.

I've been asked to write to a teacher in my life. Being it a teacher from school or a teacher of life. My only one thought was of you Miss Holly, for you've taught me more than most I've ever known. Never had another instructor of any institution take notice to myself and my mind. What you did for me in that one short school year has always stuck with me through life's little tests. As said, I was asked to write of a school teacher or one of life. You fill both the options with no contest. So I write to you and thank you, wherever you may be. One day I hope we meet again, so I could truly thank you. Sadly, you may never know the outcome of your work.
